In terms of box-office, the year 2000 proved to be almost as successful as the groundbreaking 1999. As with last year, a North-Korean themed work dominated the theaters, with Park Chan-wook's Joint Security Area setting attendance records and placing itself in line to become the best-selling Korean film in history (as of year-end it will remain in second place just behind Shiri, however it is ...

The responses to the question "If we all end up dying, what's the purpose of living?" on Quora inspired me to write this comic. The consensus was that at the end, to the universe we're no more important than a rock. We're so tiny that trying to find a meaning for our lives seems even arrogant, but that doesn't mean we can't enjoy it.
