God Of The Orphans

George Müller saw God answer ten thousand prayers for the care of his orphans. But he did not have the gift of faith. He simply took God at his word.

I'm referring to what is commonly called the New Testament, a name we eschew as Witnesses for arguable reasons. Another option, if we are looking for something to distinguish ourselves from Christendom, might be The New Covenant Scriptures, or NC for short, because 'testament' is an antiquated word. However, the purpose of this post is not to debate terminology, so we'll let sleeping ...

These startling orphan statistics are more than mere facts; remember that each number is a precious child . . . a real little kid. Every one is precious in the eyes of God, and He has an extra-special place in His heart for those children who are orphans (see verses here). But whatever you do, don't let these overwhelming statistics discourage you.

In ancient Jewish literature, such as the Ethics of the Fathers and the Talmud, there are many references to Sodom. The phrase "middat Sdom" was used. It may be translated as "the way the people of Sodom thought". It meant a lack of charity and hospitality towards others; ignoring the needs of the poor, etc.

Question: "What does the Bible say about orphans and widows?" Answer: Widows are women whose husbands have died, and orphans are children whose parents, for whatever reason, are not in the child's life. In biblical times, the main cause of a child being orphaned is that the orphan's parents had died.
