About a year ago, I wrote a series of posts about my experience with the fantasies of a better life that often prompt depressed men to leave their families. You can find the first of those stories here, here and here. Those brief pieces tell only a small part of a long and troubling story. To stay in recovery I have to know more, and so I'm starting a new series of posts specifically about [...]

Here is the most convincing theory i have come across: Spitting before urinating is coded into our habits by Evolution. For thousands of years men used to spit on the grass, or bushes before peeing to make sure there as no insect, snakes or other creatures that would attack them and bite their penis.

Dear Evan, What is it that men get out of looking/gazing at beautiful women, nude or otherwise? I have read on other websites that men actually get a chemical “high” in their brain when they see an attractive woman and that is why they are so drawn to look at other women even when they are in love with another.
